About The King's Trust International

The King's Trust International (KTI) has been supporting young people worldwide since 2015. We were founded by HM The King to tackle the global crisis of youth unemployment.

Our vision is that every young person should have the chance to succeed.

Our mission is to empower young people to learn, earn and thrive.

Our programmes and interventions are now present in 18 countries within the Commonwealth and beyond, across Asia, Africa, the Caribbean and Europe.

We are committed to amplifying the voices of young people on the global stage and putting their needs at the very heart of the design and delivery of our work. This complements global efforts to deliver the Sustainable Development Goals, particularly those relating to quality education and decent work.

We seek to work to the highest quality standards and to ensure the health and safety of all the young people we work with as well as the well-being of our colleagues and partners.

Ways of working

The King's Trust International works with local partners around the world to deliver education, employment and enterprise programmes that empower young people to learn, earn and thrive. We provide opportunities to develop the skills and confidence to succeed and deliver tangible employment outcomes, supporting young people to build their own futures.

We work with a mixture of governments, NGOs, and corporate partners and employers on our programmes and are increasingly thinking about how we can support the creation of green jobs to help deliver the low carbon transition.

See our website for details of our programmes and case studies celebrating some of the amazing achievements of a selection of young people.

Person Specification

Please read these notes carefully:

The King's Trust International (KTI) is committed to representing, at all levels, the global communities and young people that we serve. We value transferable skills and know that women, gender non confirming folk, disabled and global majority/ Black, Indigenous and People of Colour (BIPOC)/racialised people are statistically less likely to apply for a role if they feel that they do not meet at least 90% of criteria on the job description/person specification. KTI is dedicated to building an inclusive, diverse, equitable, and accessible workplace that fosters a sense of belonging - so we only include essential criteria on our person specification that is genuinely required to do the job. We focus on your aptitude, transferable skills and behaviours to assess your potential with us.

Essential criteria describes the skills, knowledge or qualifications that are necessary to do the role. Some criteria will be assessed at the shortlisting (s) stage and this will be based on the information you have provided in your CV and supporting statement. Skills or experience can be gained in a variety of ways, in your personal life as well as professionally. Do not just say, for example, 'I have good communication skills.' Tell us how you have gained experience or used a particular skill or knowledge. Other criteria may be assessed as part of an assessment (a) or at interview (i). Desirable criteria will only be used where a large number of people meet all the essential criteria, or at interview to differentiate extra skills. As a minimum, address how you meet all essential criteria in your application.
